Re: United States v. Tyrone Coleman, 23 Cr. 84 (PMH)

Dear Judge Halpern,

I write on Mr. Coleman's behalf to request an opportunity to file a reply to the government's sentencing letter. Therein, the government raised a substantive issue that I did not address in my sentencing submission: whether an enhancement under U.S.S.G. § 2K2.1(b)(6)(B) applies. Because Mr. Wikstrom did not object to the PSR's findings with regard to this enhancement, I believed the government had conceded the point.

I am having a long-scheduled medical procedure tomorrow and Friday. Thus, I would like to file my reply no later than Tuesday, January 16, 2024.

If this request will result in Mr. Coleman's sentencing being adjourned, I will forgo the reply and address the issue orally at the sentencing proceeding. Mr. Coleman would very much like to be sentenced as scheduled (on January 23).

Respectfully,

Rachel Martin, Esq.
Assistant Federal Public Defender
